37th PRESENTING SEASON

For the Love of Art

KAHILU THEATRE

2017/2018
"If music be the food of love, play on."
—William Shakespeare, Twelfth Night

The theme of our 37th Season, For the Love of Art, has inspired us to offer diverse music, theatre, dance, film, exhibits, and more, with creative nourishment in mind. Throughout the year we welcome returning artists for encore Kahilu Theatre performances and introduce new talent with art that will feed our souls.

This Season, more than twenty-five percent of our performance decisions were made specifically to benefit our youth. We are thrilled to partner with the Hawai‘i Youth Symphony and 106 students from Oahu and Maui for a joyful family concert on President’s Day, and two additional matinée Performances for Young Audiences. Five Actors From The London Stage will work with local high school students. Members of Brooklyn Raga Massive will participate in a first of its kind cultural exchange program connecting Indian and Hawaiian cultural traditions at Kalaemano Cultural Center. And, musicians from our ‘Ukulele and Slack Key Guitar Festival will once again reach with aloha across our island to give “chicken skin” concerts in our local schools.

Building upon the success of Kahilu Productions of 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, Godspell, Grease, and 13 the Musical, our Youth Troupe will shine brightly in two events this year: Best of Broadway in Hawai‘i, a concert highlighting past performances, and a rock Broadway musical, Spring Awakening, both directed by Beth Dunnington.

As is tradition, we aim to bring you the best talent from around the world in collaboration with sister organizations of the Performing Arts Presenters of Hawai‘i. Many of our global as well as our Hawaiian shows are simply extraordinary: Mark Keali‘i Ho‘omalu and dancers from the Academy of Hawaiian Arts from Oakland, California; Complexions Contemporary Ballet’s Star Dust – a Tribute to David Bowie from New York City; and Okareka Dance’s Mana Wahine from beautiful Aotearoa, the land of the long white cloud.

Our Kahilu Galleries will feature some of the finest visual artists in Hawai‘i. We are incredibly proud to be considered one of the best venues on our island to exhibit quality artwork.

If you haven’t already done so, please visit our website and sign up to receive our e-blasts. We want you to be the first to learn of any news about Kahilu Theatre, where everything we do is For the Love of Art!

At Kahilu Theatre, learning is truly the heart of the matter. We understand the value the arts bring to the well being of individuals and to our community. In the coming year we will more broadly promote arts education and leverage our work by inviting stronger partnerships and collaborations with artists, schools, and other organizations.

Performances for Young Audiences

Formerly known as “Youth Shows,” this series presents the magical experience of live professional music, dance, and theatre from Kahilu Theatre’s magnificent Broadway stage to island students ages three to eighteen. Season artist performances also extend out into the community. Last year, more than 8,500 students, homeschoolers, and even seniors (the truly young at art) participated.

Kahilu Arts

Kahilu Arts (K-Arts) is an enduring partnership with Waimea Middle School that provides professional instruction in a variety of arts disciplines. This year, these after-school classes include taiko drumming, Bon dance, ‘ukulele, backstage tech, and more. At the end of the semester, K-Arts culminates with an original show produced and performed by these young people for the public and for their peers.

Kahilu Performing Arts Classes and Camps

In collaboration with Prince Dance Institute, Kahilu Theatre sets its main stage and the Mike Luce Studio for students of all ages to be enriched with year-round classes in acting, aerial silks, ballet, break dancing, contemporary dance, glee, hula, musical theatre, trapeze, and more. Experts in their respective disciplines, instructors will create a large-scale performance in the spring to showcase the blossoming talent of their students in an original production, Future Voices.
